The theme will be “When the Storm Breaks: Suffering the Christian Life” (an overview of the book of Job) with one session on Friday evening and two on Saturday morning. The conference will be held at Woodgreen Presbyterian Church and further details will be published on www.calgaryreformedconference.com as they become available. Thoughts for Meditation: “[A Christian] believes that if people do good to him, it is because God has ordained it, yet he is, of all people, most thankful to those that do it.

He would lay down his life to save the soul of his enemy, yet will not risk one sin to save the life of someone who has saved his.

He will tell the truth to his own disadvantage and not relent; and cannot lie to get an advantage.

He believes Christ to have no need of anything he can do, yet diligently gives charity as if done to Christ.”

-Herbert Palmer “Paradoxes in the Christian”

CHURCH FAMILY

"Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, let us prophesy in proportion to our faith; or ministry, let us use it in our ministering; he who teaches, in teaching; he who exhorts, in exhortation; he who gives, with liberality; he who leads, with diligence; he who shows mercy, with cheerfulness. Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor what is evil. Cling to what is good. Be kindly affectionate to one another with brotherly love, in honor giving preference to one another; not lagging in diligence, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord; rejoicing in hope, patient in tribulation, continuing steadfastly in prayer; distributing to the needs of the saints, given to hospitality." Romans 12:6-13
